Mr. Julius Edelstein,
Office of Senator Herbert H. Lehman,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Julius:

Joseph M. Midler is the associate in our office who looks after matters regarding price and wage regulations.

He is very anxious to have an opportunity to examine the debate on the price and wage stabilization act.

If it can conveniently be done, I shall appreciate it very much if you will put Mr. Midler down to receive the Congressional Record, commencing around June 16, 1952, and continuing until final action on this act.

Sincerely yours,
