

Gellhorn, Walter, 1906-

Papers, ca.1930-1992.

157 linear ft. (ca.123,700 items in 376 boxes).

Biography: Attorney (Columbia University LL.B., 1931), legal scholar, and professor of law at Columbia School of Law from 1933 to 1973. Professor Gellhorn died in 1995.

Summary: Correspondence, writings, reports, memoranda, case files, and related printed materials. The papers cover the entire field of law with particular emphasis on civil rights, labor law, and family law. They include several series of office files dealing with Columbia University Law faculty, students, his course materials, and the administration of the Law School. In addition, there are numerous files for Amherst College (from which Gellhorn received his A.B. degree), arbitration cases, federal administrative procedure, legislation, the American Civil Liberties Union, the Association of American Law Schools, and Fordham University (for which he prepared a study). There are manuscripts, drafts, proofs, correspondence, and other related materials for some of his books: Administrative Law Cases and Comments (1940); Security, Loyalty and Science (1950); The States and Subversion (1952); Individual Freedom and Government Restraint (1956); When Americans Complain (1966); and Ombudsmen and others (1966).

1986 Addition: Series III, 1975-1983.

1992 Addition: Series IV, 1976-1992.

Organization: Selected materials cataloged; remainder arranged. Shelved on Stack 14, Range 6.

Finding aids: Contents list, 25p.

Donor: Gift of Walter Gellhorn, 1963, 1965-1967, 1977, 1986, & 1992.

Available for faculty, students, and researchers engaged in scholarly or publication projects.

Permission to publish materials must be obtained in writing from the Librarian for Rare Books & Manuscripts.
