Live Auction Items

- L1 D.C. GETAWAY: Two nights of hospitality in Washington, D.C. for 1-2 persons at Professor Jonathan Bush's DC condo, either on a weekend or weekday. Perfect for interviews in DC without the added cost of a hotel, a trip to see the much-desired cherry blossom festival, or finally take a field trip to SCOTUS. Courtesy of Professor Jonathan Bush.
- L2 CAN YOU TAKE THE HEAT?: Dinner for 5 at Manhattan's best Sichuan restaurant with Professor Ben Liebman. For spicy food lovers!
- L3 TOUR AND BRUNCH: Walking tour of Morningside Heights and brunch at Professor Richard Briffault's home for 6 to 8 students. Scheduled for May 4, with a rain date on May 10.
- L4 THE ITALIAN JOB: Dinner for 4 with Professor Harold Edgar at Celeste, a local Italian restaurant on the Upper West Side. For patent and criminal law buffs alike, or anyone who appreciates a good sense of humor and cases about Russian roulette.
- L5 MARGARITAS AND MAYHEM: Evening of dinner, margaritas, and—as the title suggests—mayhem with Professors Genty and Spinak for a bidding group of 10 students.
- L6 DINNER AND NIGHT COURT: Professor Shechtman invites you to dinner with his family, to be followed by a trip to the night court!
- L7 DESTINATION OUEST: Dinner for 4 students with Professor Goldschmid at Ouest. A critics' pick, Ouest is one of the, if not the, finest restaurants on the Upper West Side. Come eat "love-it-in-an-instant" food, such as the seared tuna with chickpea purée or an atypically tart tomato-chive broth on a tenderly flaky sautéed skate. Pair that with its stellar wine list and to-die-for desserts (think crème fraîche panna cotta with fresh passion fruit), and you and your friends will be in culinary heaven.
- L8 GAME NIGHT WITH SJI: Pass an evening of delicious cocktails and hors d'oeuvres with the SJI staff (the fun ones)! It will be a night of friendly competition, laughs, and consumption. This prize is good for a group of up to 8 people. Winners will enjoy: two hours of game(s) of their selection of an on-campus or near-campus venue, an artisanal cocktail tutorial and drinks from a creative drinkmaster, music courtesy of celebrated balladeer Matthew Gewolb, and the opportunity to win prizes but (most importantly) bragging rights. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres courtesy of Dean Chapnick!

- L9 TAPAS TIME: Dinner and drinks with Jamal Greene and Elora Mukherjee for up to 4 people at their favorite tapas restaurant. On a nice night, you can dine al fresco. Better choose a Tuesday night – there will be an added bonus of live flamenco music!
- L10 PRIVATE CONCERT: An evening at the home of Professor Susan Sturm for up to 30 people, with wine, cheese, dessert, and chamber music performed by Professor Susan Sturm and her clarinet partner. The program will include Beethoven, Ravel, and Debussy. The event will be held in September.
- L11 SNOWCATION: Will the next winter be as snowy as this one has been? Professor Strauss offers up to three students a morning of cross-country skiing (your equipment) on the carriage roads of John D. Rockefeller's historic estate (now in good part Rockefeller State Park) in nearby Pocantico, NY. Lunch to follow. No-snow consolation prize: a trip to the remarkable sculpture garden at Storm King, north of West Point.
- L12 TALE OF TWO CASES BREAKFAST: Behind the Scenes Stories from Romer v. Evans and Lawrence v. Texas. Over breakfast at Community, you and 4 or 5 friends can talk with Professor Suzanne Goldberg about some of the funny and not-so-funny behind-the-scenes stories of Romer and Lawrence and the world of LGBT/HIV rights advocacy.
- L13 OUT ON THE TOWN: Night at Ding-Dong Lounge (including Indus Valley takeout dinner) for up to 6 students with Professor Emens, Professor Scott Hemphill, and Professor Olati Johnson. Another bonus: unlimited juke box quarters. Oh, and great craft beer.
- L14 SHAKEN OR STIRRED? STRAIGHT UP OR ON THE ROCKS?: Professor Philip Bobbitt, martini-making master, will teach 6 students the secrets of his art. Liberal samples included!
- L15 PRIVATE CONCERT AND RECEPTION: Concert for up to 30 people of 17th Century music on the theme of the cuckoo (Vox Cuculi). A sure-to-astound performance by Professor Katharina Pistor, her husband, Carsten Bonnemann, and a friend, Christopher Minarch. The trio will demonstrate their expertise on the Violin, Viol, and Harpsichord at Professor's Pistor's home on April 26, 2014 at 5.00 p.m. A reception to follow!

- L16 LUNCH FOR THE LEGAL MIND: Join reference librarian Dana Neacsu for bratwurst or spätzle at Cafe Sabarsky, inspired by the great Viennese cafés of intellectual and artistic life. Located at the Neue Galerie.
- L17 EXPERIENCE NANTUCKET: Three-day weekend in Professors Elizabeth and Robert Scott's beautifully furnished and landscaped Nantucket summer home. The house boasts panoramic ocean views and is only a 5 minute walk to the beach. House has a great room, den and 4 bedrooms. Maximum of 6 people. Weekend to be arranged—possibly Memorial Day!
- L18 HARLEM'S FINEST: Dinner at Lido for up to 4 students with Professors Brett Dignam and Barbara Schatz. One diner described Lido as being "worth a chartered flight from lower Manhattan;" another stated the cream sauce is "almost criminally good . . . [requiring] a waiver absolving them from wrong doing."
- L19 BERKSHIRE RETREAT: Spend the weekend at Professor Peter Strauss's 4-bedroom, lakefront vacation home on Stockbridge Bowl in the Berkshires. Private beach included! How better to recover from exams with your friends, celebrate graduation, or simply enjoy a tranquil getaway? Weekend to be agreed upon.
- L20 TENNIS LESSON WITH A (REAL) PRO: Mario Ancic will provide a 2-hour tennis lesson. Talk about credentialed: former number 7 player in the world with wins over R.Federer, R.Nadal, N.Djokovic and A.Murray, Wimbledon semifinalist, winner of the Olympic medal at the Athens Olympic Games and a Davis Cup Champion, but MOST impressively, a 2L at Columbia Law School.

- L23 SPOONBREAD WITH THE CLINIC TEAM: Enjoy lunch for 3 with a clinic team that still embodies the Harlem Legal Aid office of the golden days. Join Clinic Administrator Brenda Eberhart and Clinic Professors Conrad Johnson and Mary Zulack at Spoonbread II. Schedule it soon – you'll be energized for the rest of the semester!
- L24 SPEAKEASY FOR SIX: Do you think "chartreuse" is just a color? Do you know your "absinthe" from your "aquavit"? When you hear "aperol," do you think of equitable relief? It's time you got a real education. Join Professors Scott Hemphill and Bert Huang for an evening of tasting flights of cocktails at a local speakeasy yet to be named (if it even has a name...). The tasting is limited to six students. Some flexibility in timing required since Professor Huang is currently in Cambridge but does return to New York frequently.
- L25 COCKTAILS, CHELSEA, CONCEIVABLE CAPER: Professor Tim Wu will make his premiere Martinis (employing the "Bobbitt method) or Manhattans at his West Chelsea loft and then take our group on an "enhanced" tour of West Chelsea's best galleries, including Pace, Augustine, Gagosian, with possible side-trips up and down the high-line. Don't sign up if you hate art or strong drinks, but trust me -- you may discover a whole new level of art appreciation.
- L26 RED ROOSTER: Some lucky group of four will be able to join Professors Metzger and Johnson for lunch at Red Rooster in Harlem. With this dynamic duo, you're sure to have a whale of a time.
