

SUNRISE

Titles from Katharine Hilliker and H.H.Caldwell March 4, 1927

1. FADE IN:

This might have happened right in your midst.

For life----in the city's turmoil or under the open sky
on the plains----is much the same: Sometimes bitter, sometimes sweet, tears and laughter,*gray days and sunlight.

x Do you know these people?

FADE OUT

OR

1. FADE IN:

cut
The lights and shades in human lives are the same wherever the sun rises and sets. This story might have happened in any locality---at any time; it may be happening now--- here in your midst.

FADE OUT

2. cut FADE IN:

In a quiet backwater the Village sunned itself----

FADE OUT

3. FADE IN:

Among the vacationists was a Woman of the City. Some weeks had ~~elapsed~~ since her coming and still she lingered. passed

FADE OUT

4. "They used to be like children, care-free----always happy and laughing----"

5. "Now he ruins himself for that woman from the city. Money-lenders strip the farm----and his wife sits alone."

6. "Tell me! You are all mine?"

7. "Sell your farm----come with me to the city."

8. "-----and my wife?"
9. "Couldn't she get drowned?"
10. "-----then overturn the boat----it will look like an accident."
11. "Leave all this behind----come to the city! It is calling us-----"
- 11a. "COME TO THE CITY!"
12. "-----after the boat has capsized, save yourself with these bulrushes."
13. "The rushes will hold you up. Scatter them before you reach the shore---- tell everyone she drowned by accident."
14. "We're going for a trip across the water. I'll be gone for quite a while."
15. "Don't be afraid of me!"
16. "Don't be afraid of me!"
- x 17. "You have promised to love her as long as you both shall live----" x
- x 18. "-----to keep and protect her from all harm----"
19. "Forgive me!"

21. "Manicure?"

22. "You'd look grand with a pointed trim and a high polish!"

25. "Come again!"

24. Thank you!
"~~-----~~ you must come and see us sometime."

25. x "You are lucky, my friend. She's the sweetest bride I've seen this year!"

26. x "Put back there is no hope ~~-----~~ it's useless to search any more."

27. x "I am wiser than the rest of them. I know the tides----I went around the Point----"

.....